Good stuff. I'll get additional input from the team and send a revised version soon. I appreciate your help on this and all the other hoopla. Thanks Rich, have a good weekend!

Hi Robert—here's a draft reflecting some comments. In retrospect, I probably should have tracked changes, but please do revisit the initial version you sent me if you think I messed something up or if there are important messages that aren't reflected here. I did cut out some detail on ongoing investigation activity and prior decisions/documents as I thought perhaps some of that might work better in context of meeting, but reinsert or edit this version as you see fit. We can discuss as well.

Also, the detail about the investigation as ongoing and happening is slightly confusing re: the NPL listing as being an action that secures such an investigation, but I understand the site history here and assume locals will too...

Thanks!
